

Online Video Counselling and Support Client Information

Thank you for participating in online counselling and support service with Open Arms. In most respects online counselling or support is the same as in-person services at the office or rooms of your Open Arms worker. However, there are also some important differences and in order for your online sessions to provide you with the greatest benefit, is important for Open Arms to collect some information from you.

Client's telephone number(s)

Telephone:

Mobile:

Client's online video platform ID or address

ID or address:

Emergency contact person's name and contact number and relationship to client

Name:

Telephone:

Relationship:

Medical Support

Name:

Telephone:

Practice Name:

Practice Address:

I consent to Open Arms keeping this information for the purposes of video counselling and support

Name:

Signature: