Connect 2020

CONNECT 2020

A mental health and suicide prevention webinar series

Major Sponsor:  LIVINGWORKS

Connect 2020 is Suicide Prevention Australia's webinar series bringing together thought leaders and innovators to share ideas to support our vision of a world without suicide.

Connect 2020 is a unique opportunity to connect and learn from mental health and suicide prevention leaders.

The webinars will explore a range of topics including mentally healthy workplaces, mens' health, carers and postvention.

The webinars are designed for those working in suicide prevention; mental wellbeing; human resources; workplace health and safety; research; and people with lived experience.

The series is proudly supported by global leader in suicide first aid training, LivingWorks, the major sponsor of the eight webinars. Learn more about their new 60 minute online suicide intervention skills training program, START.

About Webinar 1

The workplace has evolved significantly, which has required rapid adaptation.

This webinar will investigate the present and future challenges faced by employers and employees to achieve mentally healthy workplaces, with a focus on suicide prevention.

We endeavour to answer the question of how do we build the mental health and wellbeing of the diverse workforces participating in suicide prevention.

Register today and hear from an experienced and dynamic line up of keynote speakers including: Lucy Brogden AM, Professor Nicholas Procter, Associate Professor Jo Robinson and Dr Angela Nicolas. In addition, a case study will be presented showcasing Hydro Tasmania's award winning workplace program, A New Mindset, which won the 2018 Best Practice in Workplace Tasmanian LiFE Award.
